Colonialism, Slavery, Reparations and Trade

Remedying the 'Past'?

Edited by Fernne Brennan and John Packer

both at the University of Essex, UK

Colonialism, Slavery, Reparations and Trade: Remedying the 'Past'? addresses how reparations might be obtained for the legacy of the trans-Atlantic slave trade.

December 2011: 224pp / HB: 978-0-415-61915-8: £75.00

This collection lends weight to the argument that liability is not extinguished on the death of the plaintiffs or perpetrators. Arguing that the impact of the slave trade is continuing and therefore contemporary, it maintains that this trans-generational debt remains, and cannot not be addressed. Bringing together leading scholars, practitioners, diplomats, and activists, Colonialism, Slavery, Reparations and Trade provides a powerful and challenging exploration of the variety of available – legal, relief-type, economic-based and multi-level – strategies, and barriers, to achieving reparations for slavery.
