

Table of Contents

Introduction Andréa Sepúlveda Brito Carotti	1
Part I: Realising Children's Rights in the Criminal Justice System
Youth Justice in the United Kingdom Eamonn Carrabine	12
Construction of Criminality and Children Ved Kumari	25
Towards a Mixed Economy of Youth Justice Pam Cox	40
Part II: Comparative Approaches in Adoption and Child Protection
Identifying Domestic Mechanisms for Rights Protections in an Intercountry Adoption Setting: A comparison of Guatemala, South Africa and India Sarah Sargent	50
Child Protection Strategies in the United Kingdom and India Nishtha Desai	72
Part III: Violence against Children
Maternal Abusers: Underlying concerns for children Jackie Turton	81
In their own Defence: Violence against girls, and girls as human rights defenders Ferne Brennan and John Packer	93
Colloquium Report: Violence against girls, and girls as human rights defenders Brett Dodge	101
Part IV: Strategies for Empowering Children
Girls and Boys as Human Rights Defenders: The importance of peer support Netta Cartwright	110
The Girl Child Empowerment Strategy Betty Makoni	128
Interview with Carolyn Hamilton	134